

Department of Statistics

Corporate Partners Conference 2002

Conference Schedule 2002

Research Seminar 2002

Thursday, October 3 through Sunday, October 6, the faculty and graduate students of the Virginia Tech Department of Statistics will be hosting the second annual Corporate Partners Program Conference. Lodging, meals, and local transportation will be provided for two representatives of each corporate partner so that we can make the most of our weekend together. The highlights are

- one-on-one interviews with Masters and Ph.D. candidates,
- advisory meetings with departmental leaders,
- an afternoon symposium to present current research projects,
- and plenty of opportunities to develop professional relationships and joint projects.
